Purpose of This Topic

This topic explains ways to search for a product on the U.S. Mint's Online Catalog web site.

Overview of Search Features

The Online Catalog site provides several search features:

- You can type a search keyword, such as "platinum" or "roosevelt," in the Search field.

- If you know the product number for an item, you can type that number in the Search field.

- You can use the Advanced Search list to select from a comprehensive list of search categories.

- You can click one of the Product Category links on the left navigation bar to view only items classified under that category.

Steps for Using Various Search Features

Search by Keyword

When performing a keyword search, you use a keyword that best describes the product you are looking for. The steps in this section use "roosevelt" as a sample keyword.

Use the Search field to perform a keyword search. The Search field is available on most of the U.S. Mint Online Catalog web pages. The following instructions use this feature on the Catalog Home page.

> ℹ️ The Search field is not available on the My Account or Shopping Cart pages.

1. Display the U.S. Mint Online Catalog Home page by clicking the Catalog Home link (labeled "A" in Figure 1).

3. Type roosevelt in the Search field.

> ℹ️ Keyword searches are not case-sensitive.

4. Click Go, or press Enter. The Search Results page appears.

   - If no matching items were found, a message prompts you to try again.

   - If matching items were found, they are listed on the Search Results page. Figure 3 shows the results for "roosevelt."

Search Hint:

In this example, the search results included entries for both Theodore and Franklin D. Roosevelt. If you want to ensure that you return only entries for Franklin D. Roosevelt, you could type franklin d. roosevelt in the Search field. You would need to include the middle initial in this case.
